

CAUS MEETING

November 5, 2003

Attendees: Diane Asay, Rick Call, Richard & Lana Marsden, Sheila Mavin, Tamara Burnside, Julie Christofferson, Sherry Kafka Wagner, Colleen Nicholes, Suiska Rhodes, Maria Peterson, Jean Irwin, Joanne Lawrence, Lynna Kendall, Carol Goodson, Michael Hamblin, Xan Johnson, Elaine Jones, Mike Smith, Doris Trujillo, Tom Wood, JoD'Ann Dance, Karen Lofgren, Nicholas Morrison, Jane Nelson, Leslie Timmons, Susan Williams, Beverly Mangham, Barbara Prestwich, Bob Bird Sr., Bob Bird Jr., and Nancy Fleming.

Welcome by Carol Ann Goodson

Sherry Kafka Wagner

- Map of this moment suggested
- Think about the world we live in
- No more business as usual
- Human beings don't fit in a factory approach
- Need systems model (think systemically)
- World belongs to those who can think beyond boundaries
- We go forward when we find a connection between two things that exclude each other
- Hold 2 ideas in our minds at the same time
- Both/and is better than either/or (short term vs. long term)
- Life-long learner
 - Self taught learner
 - Learn to live off your eyes
- Art helps us
- Art endures and has great power
- Creativity is primary learning strategy (how do people create?)
- Keep eyes on the ball
 - Basic creativity
 - Basic skill
 - Satisfaction in the doing
 - You may have to improvise
- Gift economy
 - Gift keeps moving
- Don't be afraid to explore
 - Wright Brothers & 100years of flight
- The substance of style
- The origins of knowledge and imagination
- Paul Baker's tools
 - Integrating creativity
 - Collaborating creativity (feedback loop)
 - Listen for ideas
 - Move then talk (thinking)
 - Explore and notice details
 - Look and not judge

No business part to meeting